RED AND GRAY BAND

MARCH FOR A FESTIVE OCCASION Eric Osterling

Eric Osterling is well known for his many concert marches. March For A Festive Occasion is his approach to writing a ceremonial march with the English tempo and style in mind.

LITANY AND ALLELUIA Leland Forsblad

Litany And Alleluia is a contemporary composition, written for younger bands, using the form of early Russian church music.

CASTLE WOODS OVERTURE Joseph Olivadoti

Olivadoti's composition is an excellent example, harmonically and melodically, of the traditional style of the early American wind band overtures.

CANTO W. Francis McBeth

Canto was commissioned by the All-Japan Band Association to be used in their national contest by the Japanese Junior High Schools' bands. The first performance was by the Sony Band in the Spring of 1978.

BICENTENNIAL MARCH arr. Philip Gordon

"My Days Have Been So Wondrous Free" Hopkinson
"Chester" Billings

MacARTHUR PARK J. Webb - A. Balent

This beautiful Jimmy Webb song has become an American "pop" classic in the world of popular music. Mr. Balent's arrangement does a good job of capturing the lyrical quality of the tune.
